

Receptionist

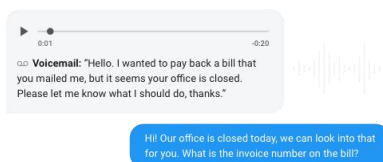

Never miss a customer call

Answer calls without picking up the phone. Engage callers immediately by texting answers to frequently asked questions in their voicemails.

Turn missed calls into found revenue

Be there for your customers, even when you're not. Birdeye Receptionist captures your missed calls and turns them into text conversations, so you can schedule appointments, answer questions, and close deals faster.

Your new virtual receptionist

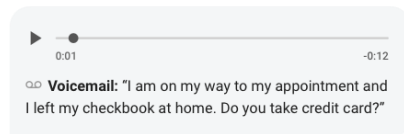

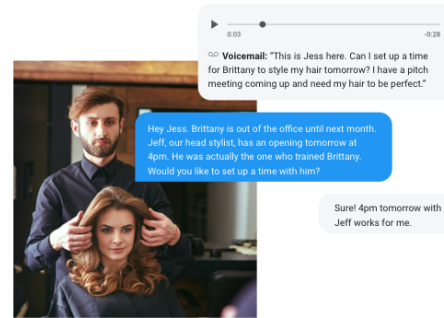

Receptionist answers calls when you're out of office, closed or just busy on the phone. All missed calls and voicemail transcriptions are delivered to you in a centralized inbox.
